

The Honorable Mayor Thomas M. Menino,

Evelyn Friedman,
Chief of Housing and Director for the Department of Neighborhood Development, and

James W. Hunt,
Chief of Environment and Energy,

cordially invite you to celebrate the announcement of the U.S. Environmental Protection Agency

Brownfields 2008 Grant Awards

Wednesday, September 3, 2008 2:00 P.M.

Modern Electroplating site 2430 Washington Street, Dudley Square Roxbury

The City of Boston will receive over $500,000 in EPA Brownfield 2008 Grant funding to be used to clean three sites: 191 Bowdoin Street in Dorchester, Lewis Chemical in Hyde Park, and the Modern Electroplating site in Roxbury.

The clean up of these sites will pave the way for new development, including a state-of-the-art police station in Dudley Square.

RSVP to Meg Cummings at 617-635-0292
or email to mcummings.dnd@cityofboston.gov