

PLAN: Downtown

What Downtown places or landmarks are significant to you?

Add a sticker to a photograph that shows an important or meaningful place Downtown. You may add stickers to multiple photos.

Did we miss your favorite place or a significant landmark? Take a photo on your phone and post it to Twitter or Instagram during December with the hashtag #plandowntownboston

PLAN: Downtown

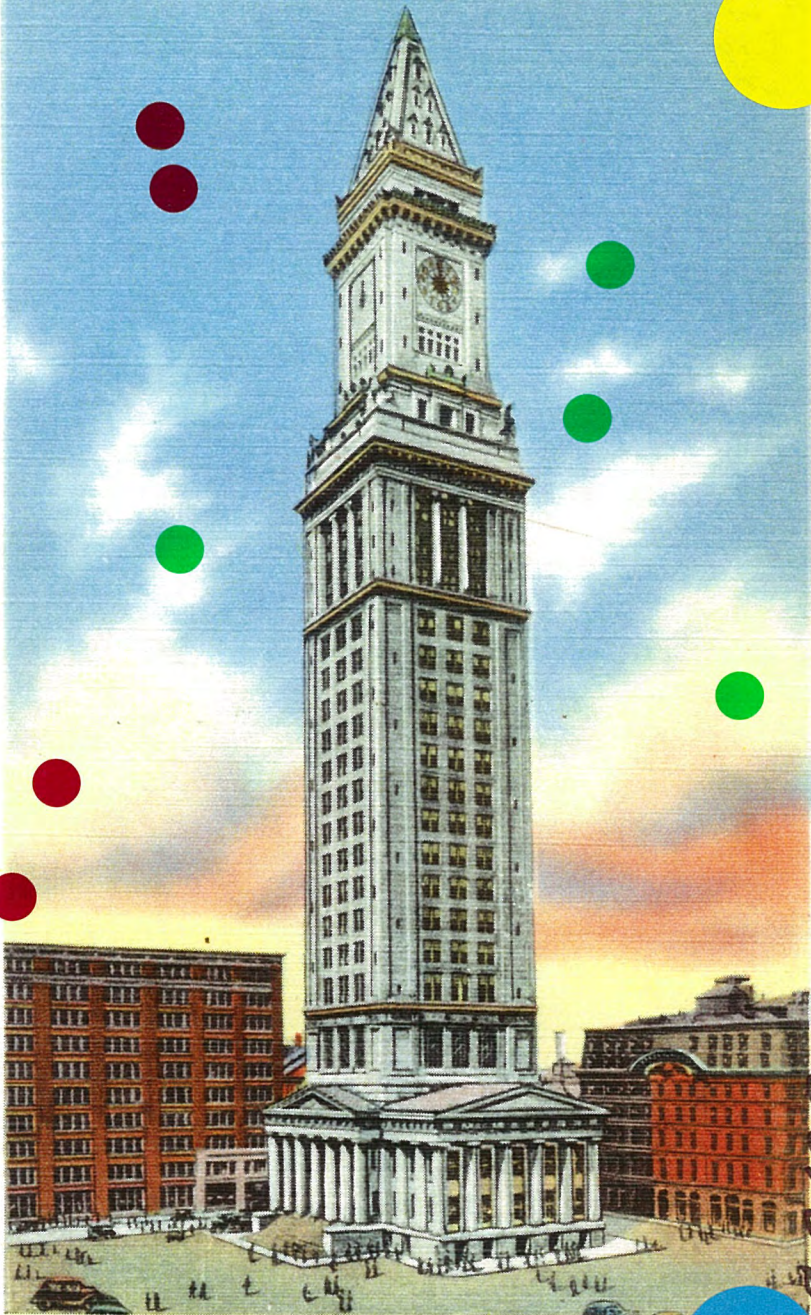

您认为哪些地方和地标在市中心很重要？

请在片晌上用贴纸标出重要的地方。你可以
选出多个地方。

如果这些照片中没有你喜爱的地方，请
把这些地方的拍照发布到Twitter或
Instagram

#plandowntownboston

Custom House, Boston, Mass.

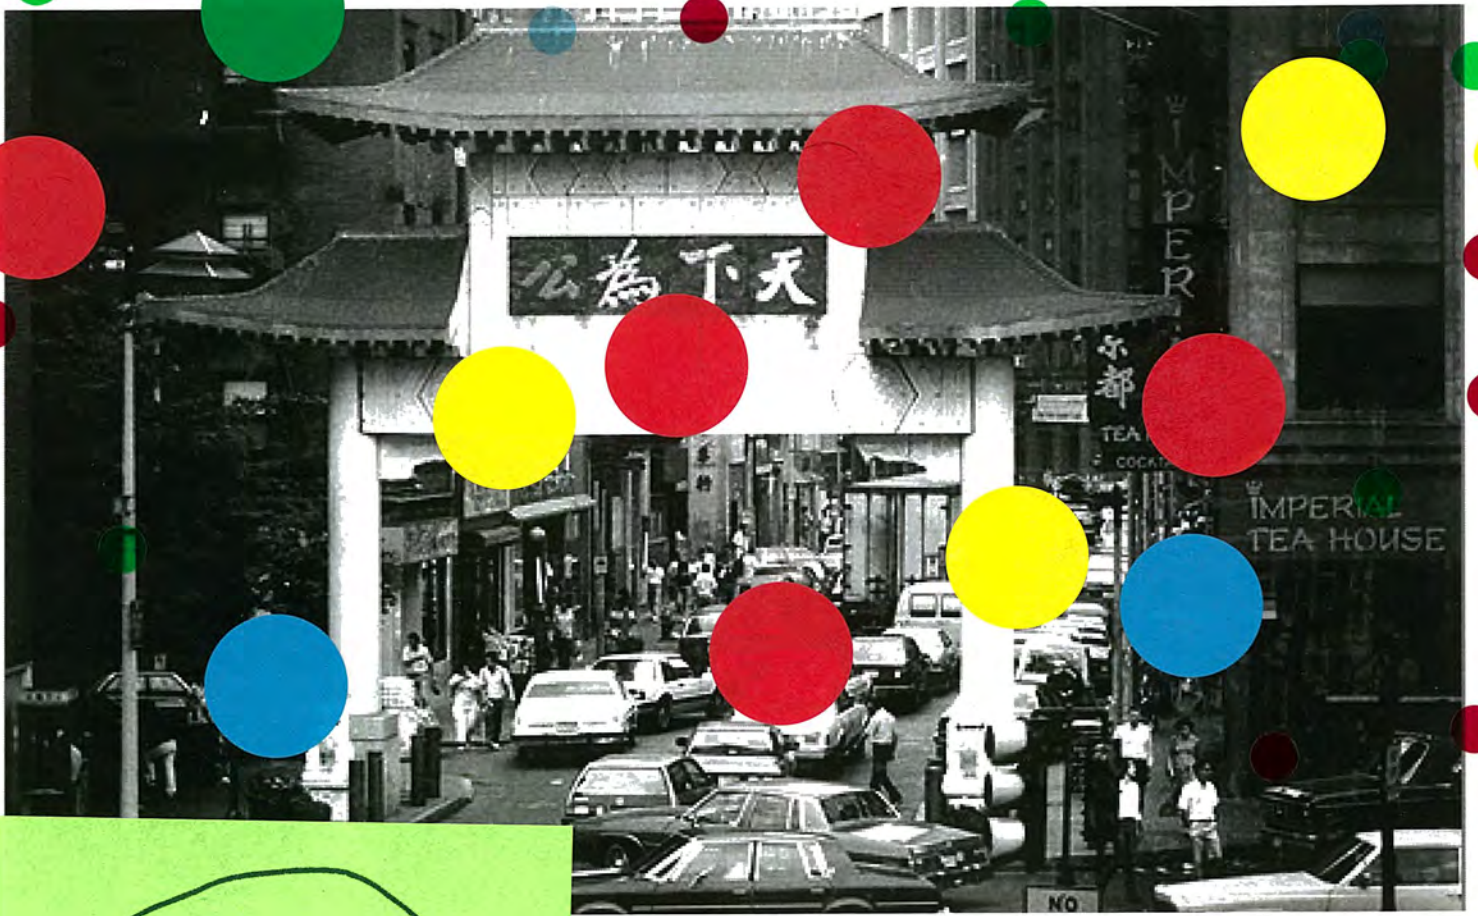

Custom House Tower

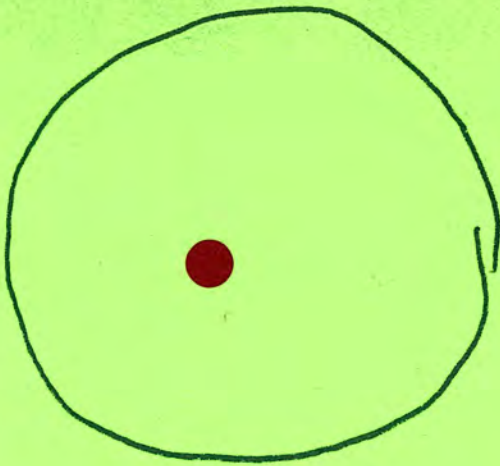

Boylston Building, Washington and Essex Street (ca. 1960)

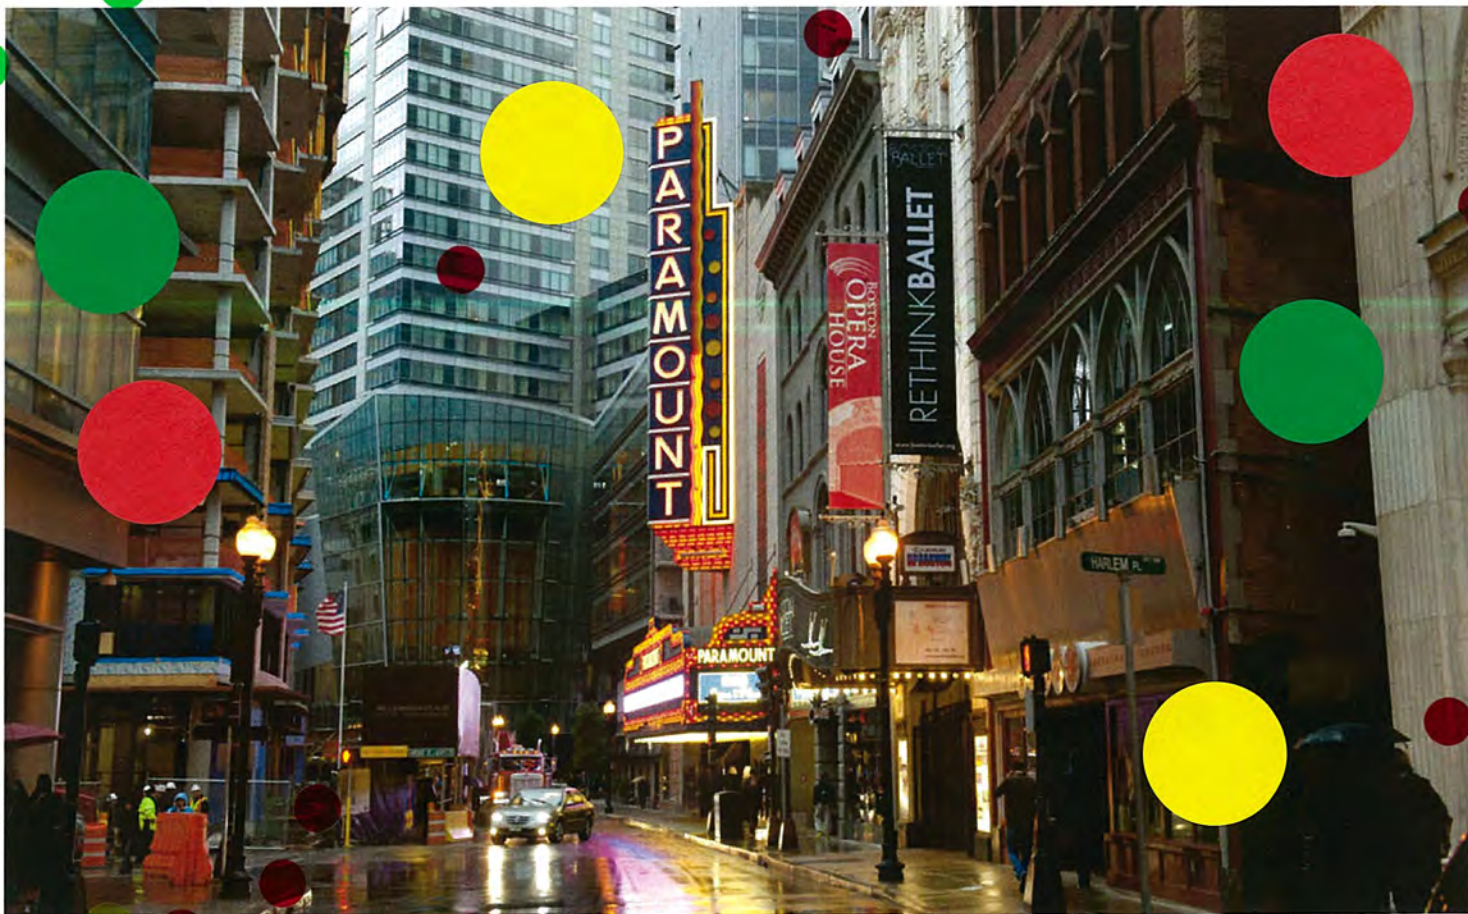

Post Office Square + Norman B. Leventhal Park, Congress Street

Chinatown Gate, Beach Street (1987)

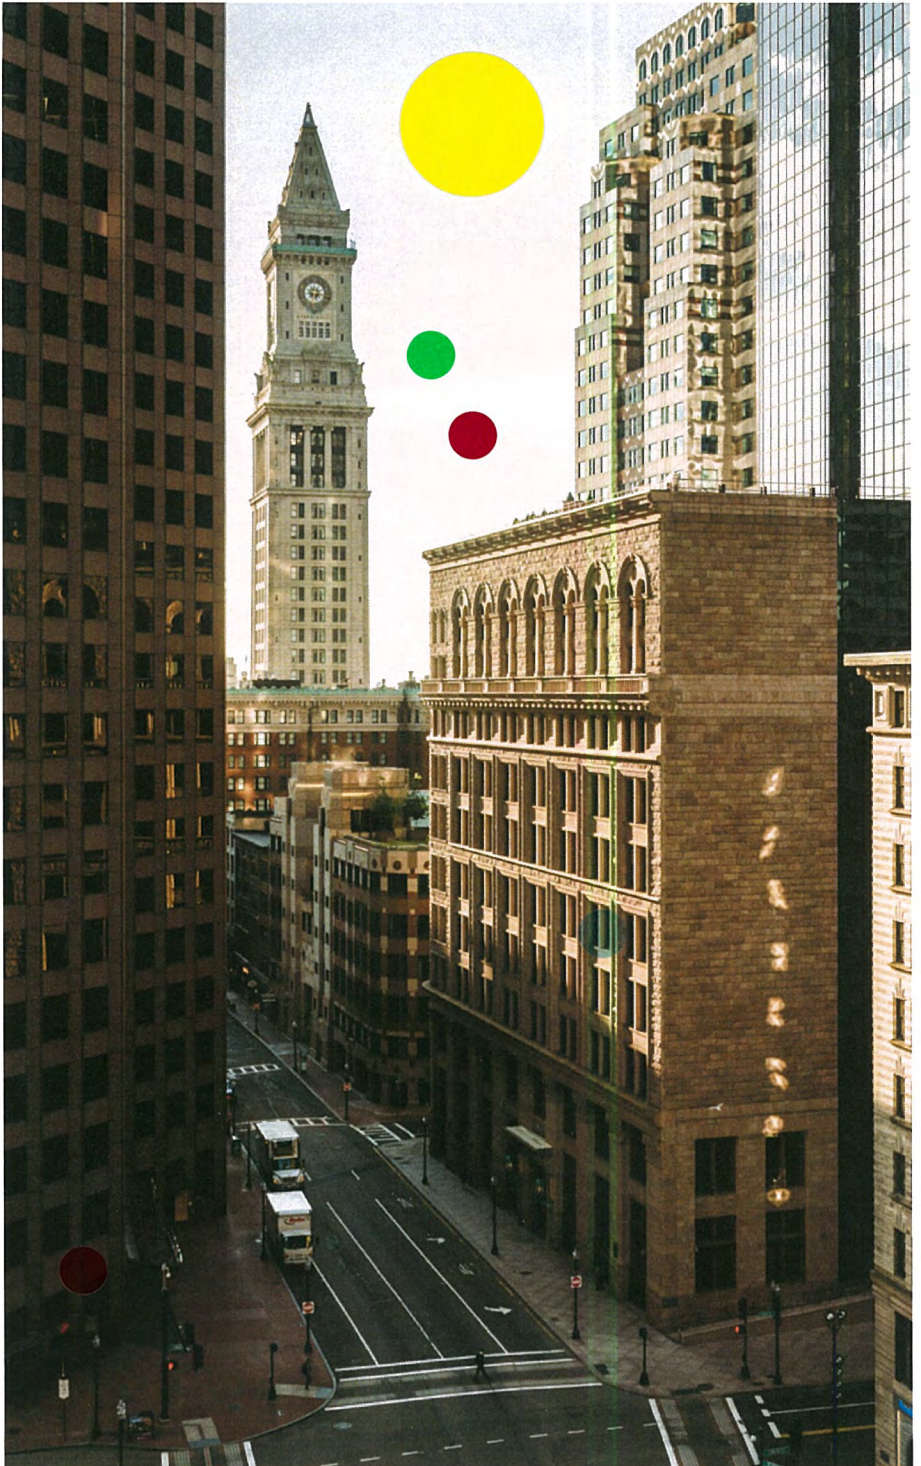

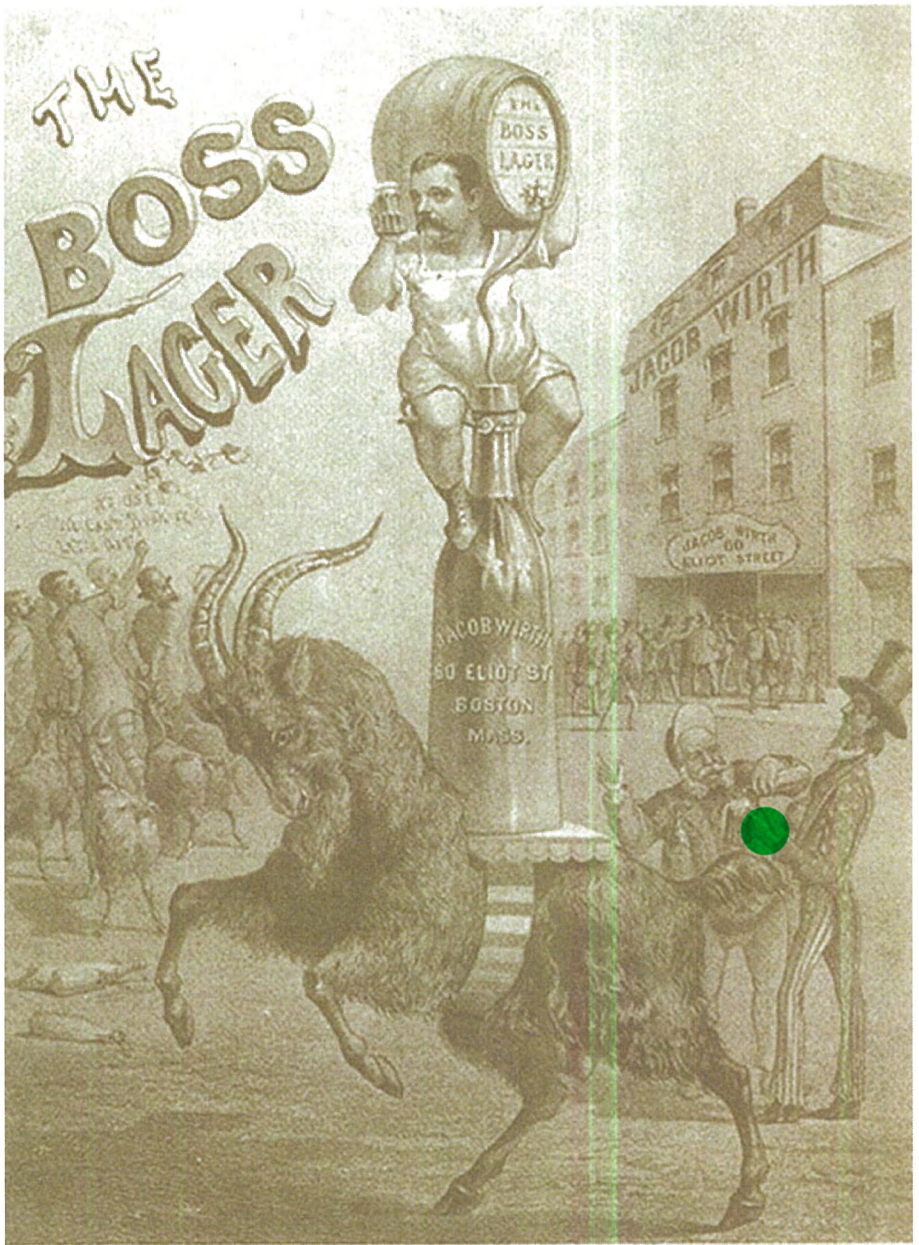

Washington Street Theater District

Exchange at 100 Federal Street

Custom House Tower and State Street

AN ADVERTISING POSTER OF THE 1870s
Lithograph by A. Trochsler, Boston, with caricature of the elder
Jacob Wirth.

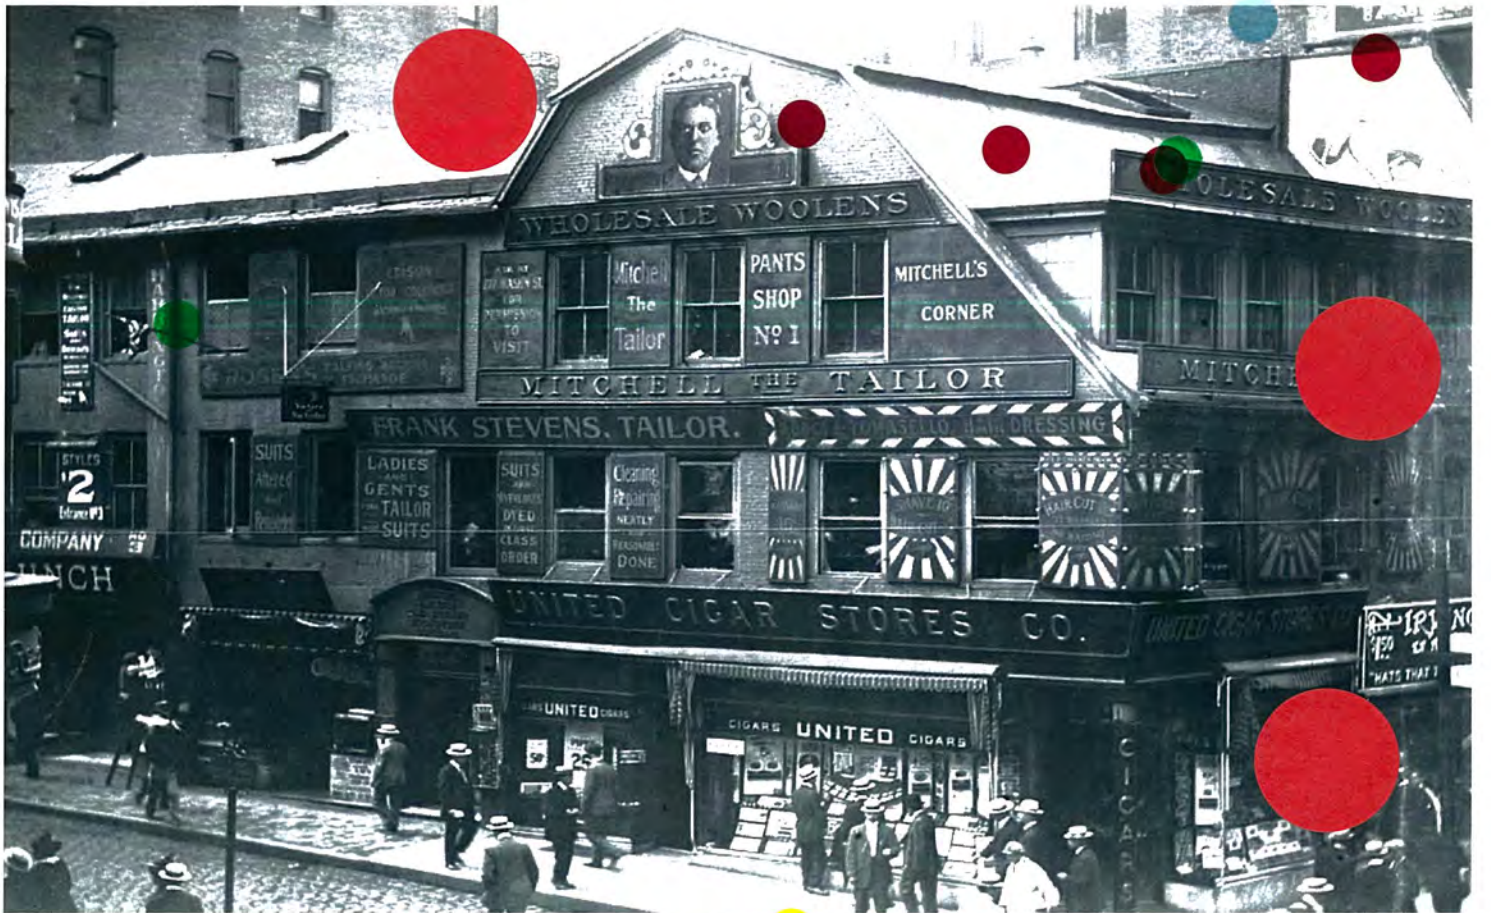

Jacob Wirth, Stuart Street (ca. 1870)

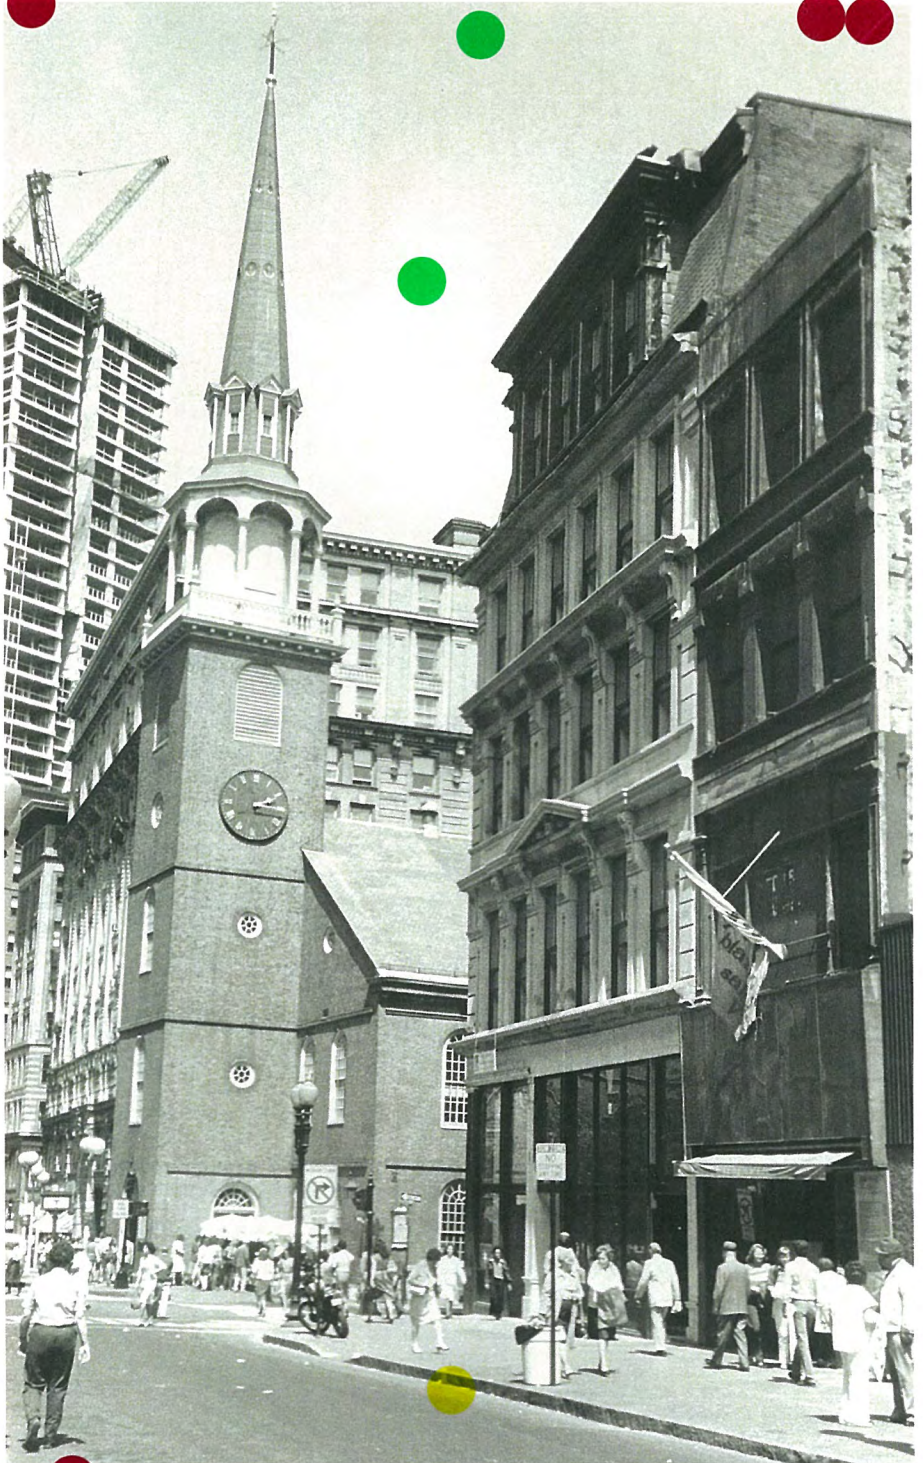

South Station (1975)

Edgar Allan Poe Square, Boylston Street and Charles Street

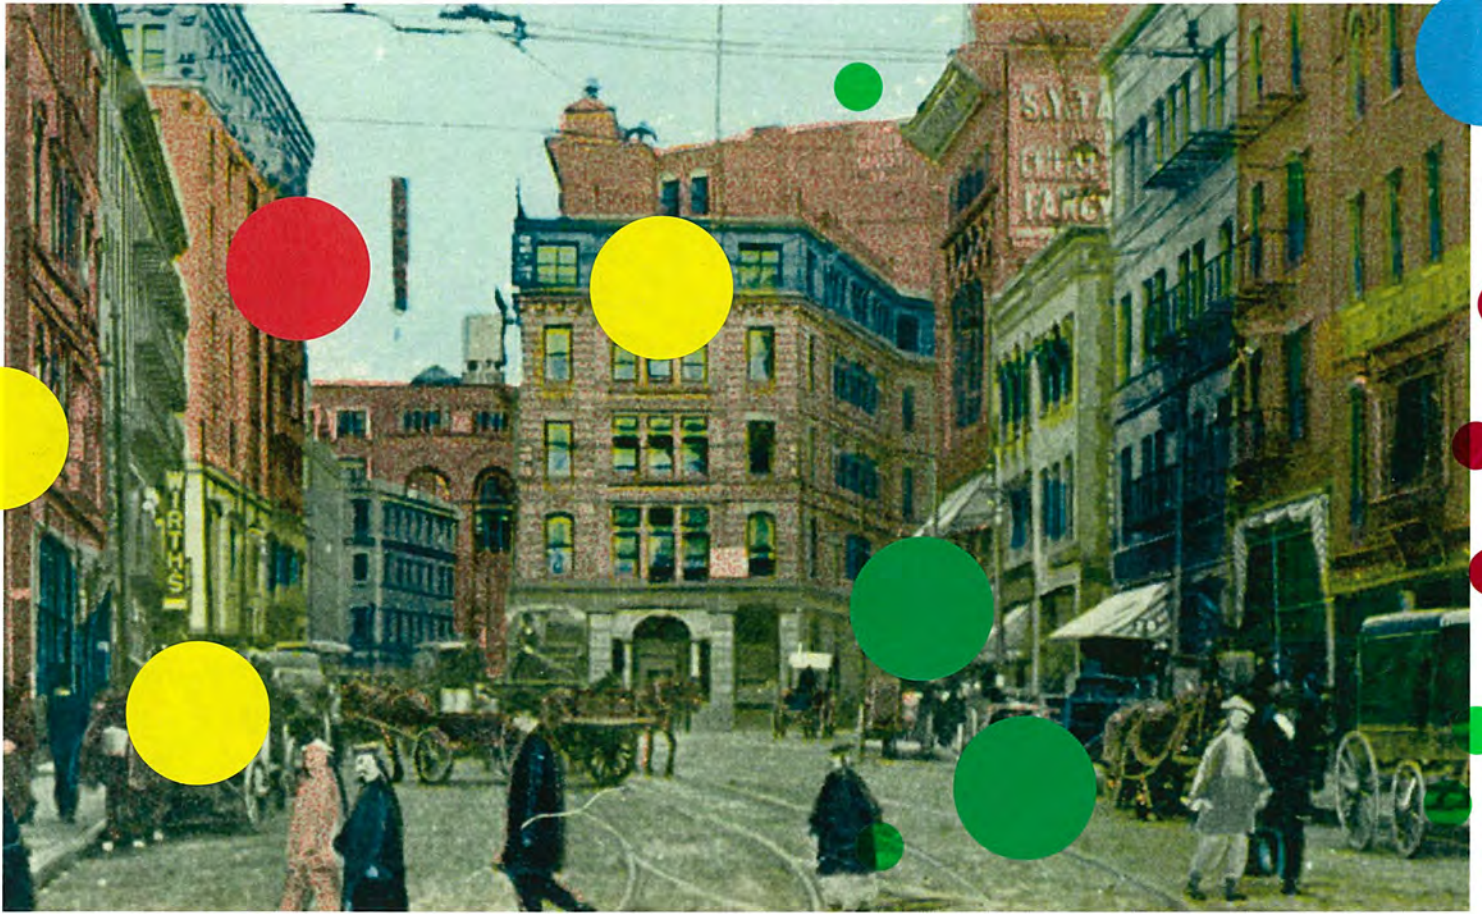

Old Corner Bookstore, Washington and School Street (ca. 1910)

Old South Meeting House, Washington Street (ca. 1980)

Boston Common, Tremont Street (ca. 1920)

Chinatown, Harrison Avenue (ca. 1880)

Downtown Crossing Summer Street (ca. 1970)

Sears Crescent Building, Government Center

Brattle Book Shop, West Street

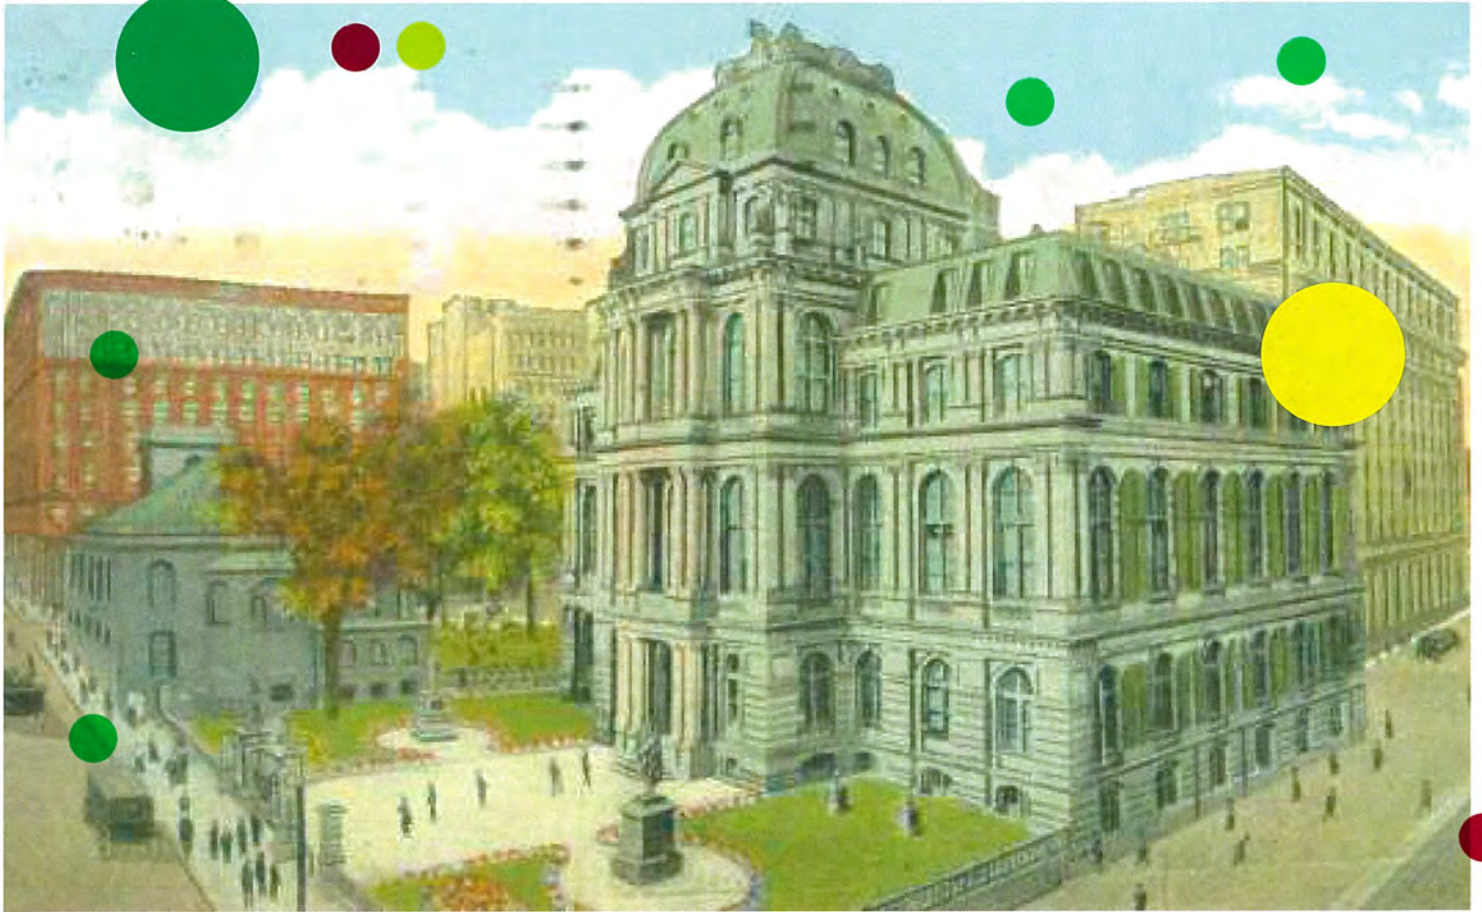

Masonic Temple, Boylston and Tremont Street (1910)

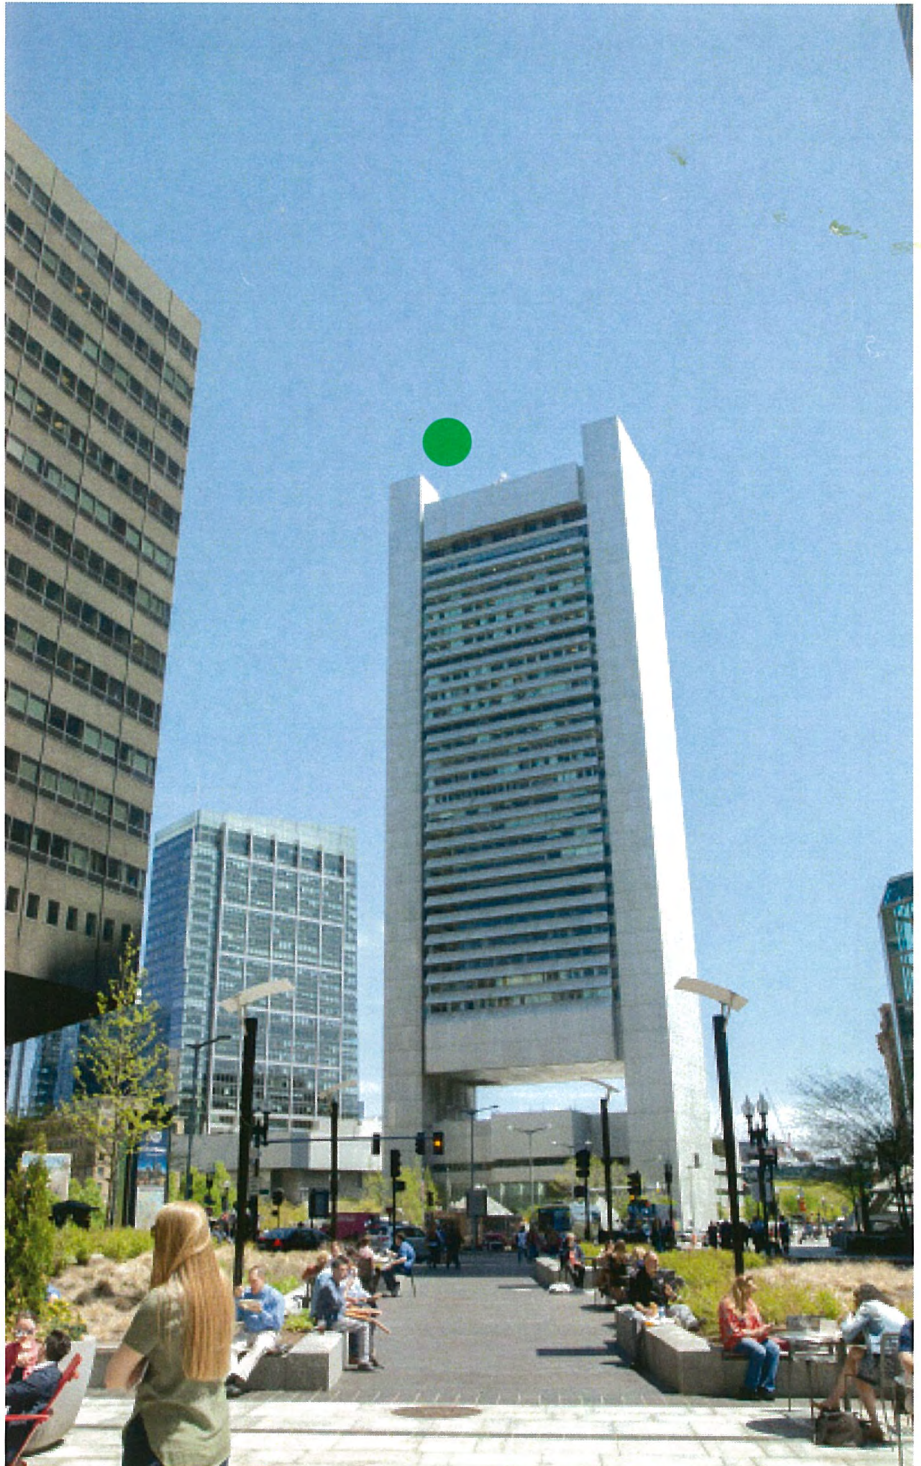

Mary Soo Hoo Park, Hudson and Beach Street

Irish Famine Memorial, Washington and School Street

Old City Hall, School Street

125 Summer Street Plaza

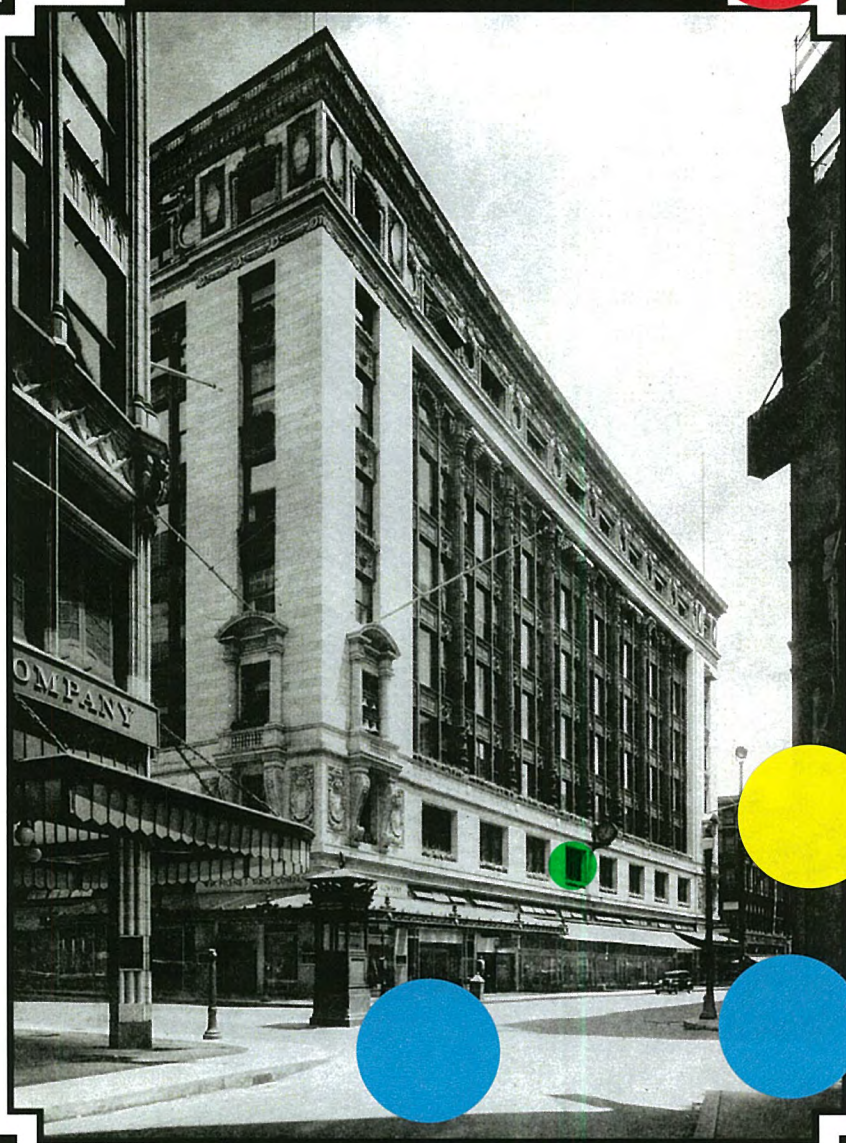

Downtown Crossing Shopper's Plaza

Stater Park, Columbus Ave and Stuart Street

The DEPARTMENT STORE Museum

Wm. Filene's Sons Co.

Filene's

Filene's, Washington Street (present day Primark)

Proctor Building, Bedford Street (ca. 1970)

Kneeland Street (ca. 1930)

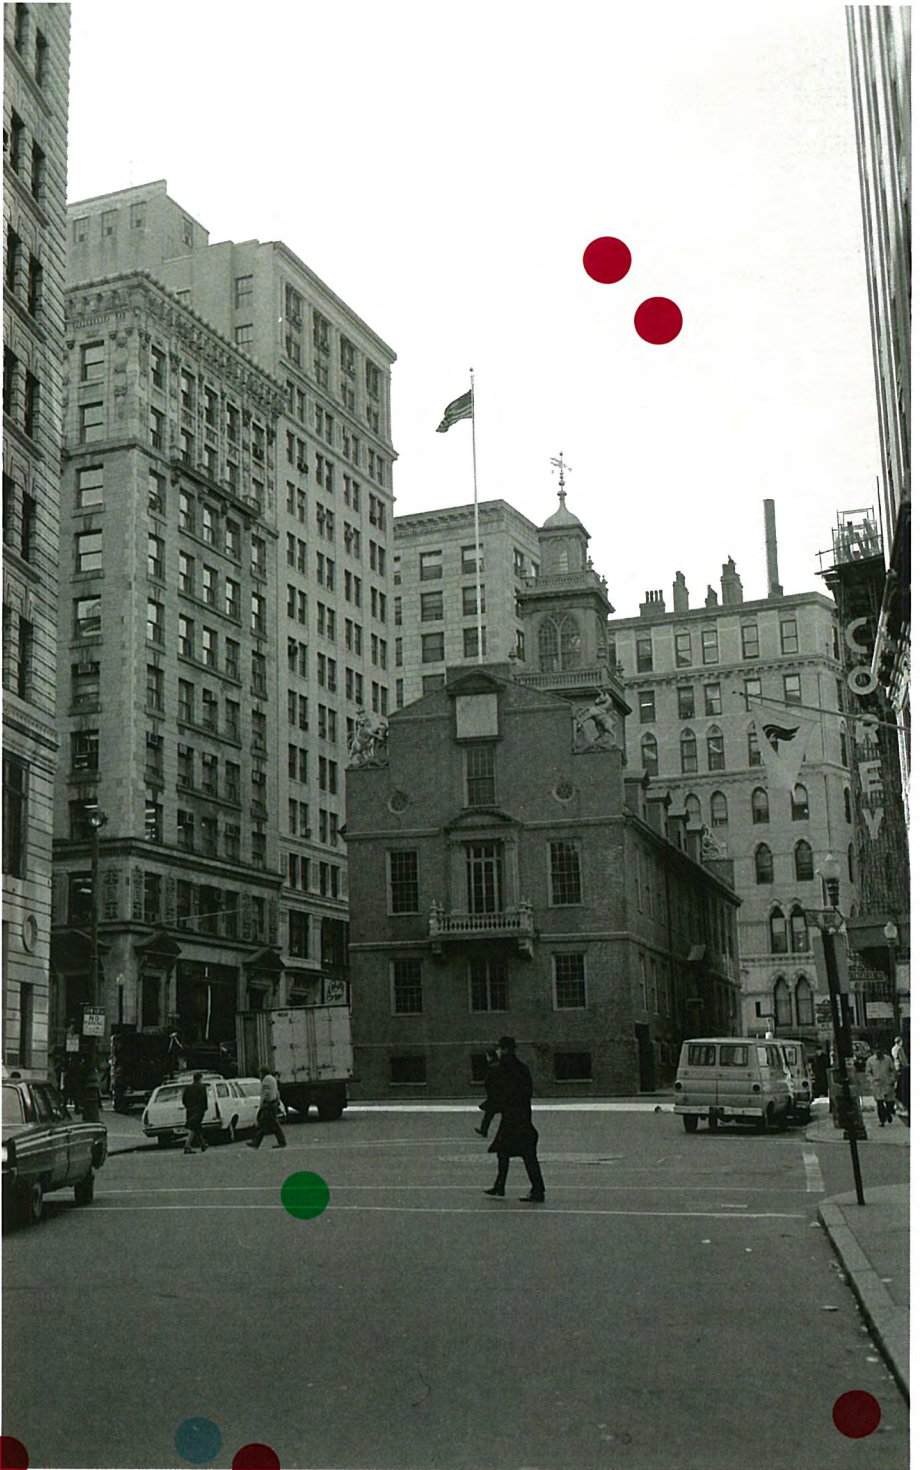

60193

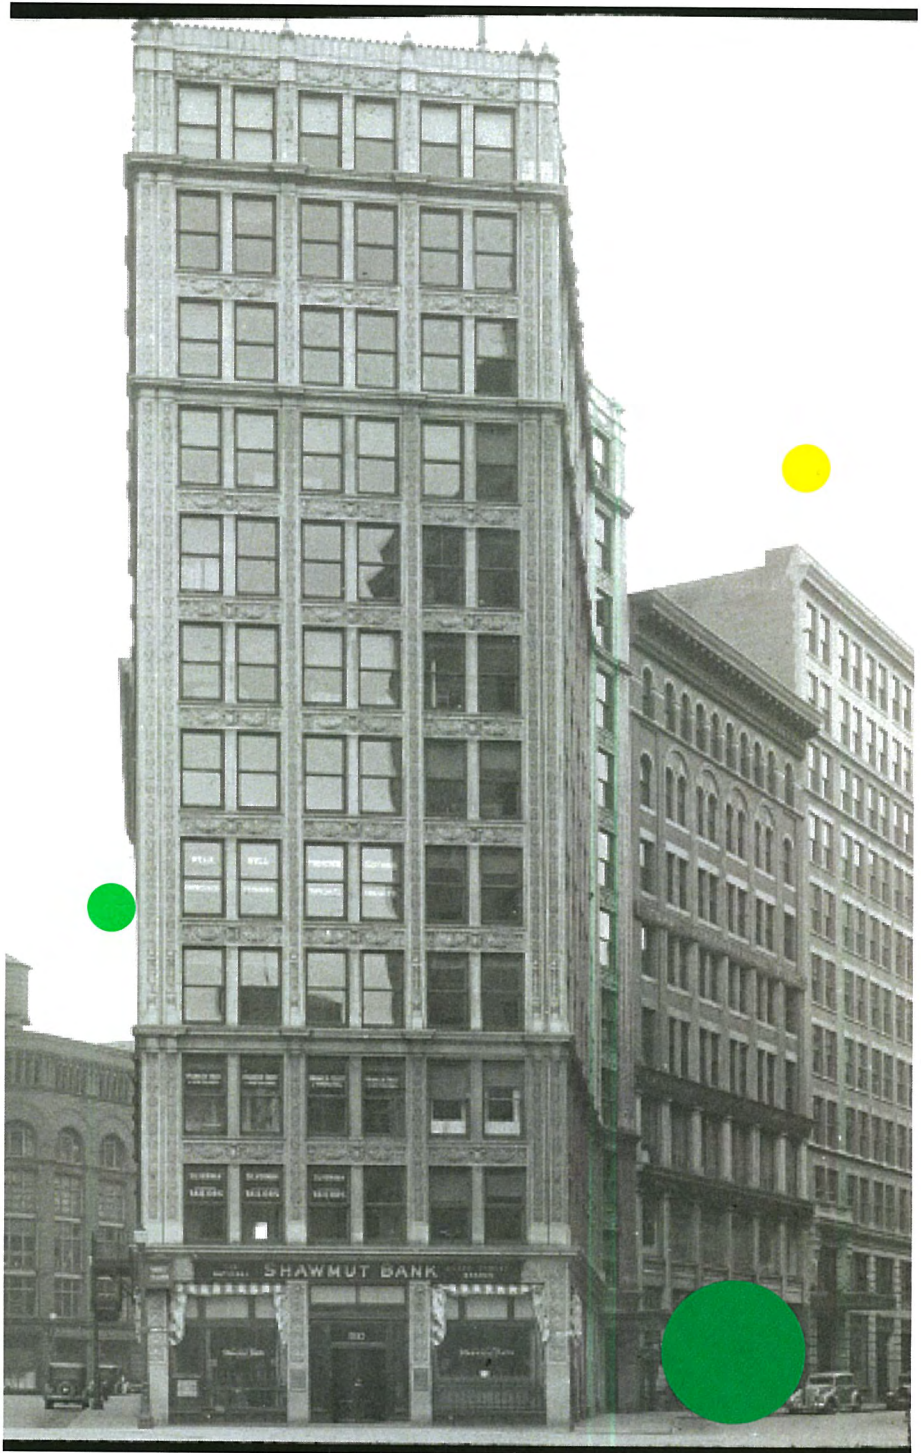

Tontine Crescent Temporary Plaza, Franklin Street

Eliot Norton Park

Old State House, State Street (1968)

Harrison and Essex Street (1934)

Little Building, Boylston and Tremont Street (1930)

City Hall Plaza